FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ResolveXO Wins Real Estate Advisory Team of the Year at 2025 RICS Australia Awards

Independent advisory firm claims its fourth win since inception, reinforcing its position as the most awarded team in Australia.

At the 2025 RICS Australia Awards, ResolveXO was recognised as Real Estate Advisory Team of the Year, achieving its third straight win and fourth since the category's inception.

This result reinforces ResolveXO's leadership in the category, and reflects that the market increasingly values professional, transparent, client-only advice over the conflicted brokerage models of larger global providers.

ResolveXO's submission showcased its work with MinterEllison, one of Australia's largest law firms, as it faced a critical decision about the future of its headquarters. With the firm's Governor Macquarie Tower lease expiring in 2028, ResolveXO provided independent advice, underpinned by financial modelling and market expertise, to evaluate all potential options.

Following a comprehensive analysis, ResolveXO assisted MinterEllison to a decision that secures operational efficiencies, enhances workplace flexibility, and supports their commitment to achieve net zero emissions by 2030.

The RICS Awards celebrate innovation and excellence across the built environment, recognising organisations and individuals who are raising standards and driving impact across the real estate sector.

Judges at the awards described the ResolveXO submission as “impressive”, underscoring the firm’s reputation for delivering conflict-free, client-first advice.

“This award is proof that independence matters. Our clients come to us because they want advice that’s professional and free of conflicts — not brokerage that’s dressed up as advice. We’re proud that this approach continues to be recognised at the highest level. I would like to thank our staff, clients and the RICS for upholding this,” said Stuart Allison, CEO & Partner, ResolveXO
