MEDIA RELEASE

Continuing HHG Legal Group's professional awards, we are proud to be recognised in the 2027 Best Lawyers and Best Law Firms Australia rankings.

Managing Director Murray Thornhill has been recognised in Commercial Law, while Simon Creek has again been recognised in Family Law and de Facto Law. Simon has now been recognised by Best Lawyers each year from 2019 to 2027.

This builds on the firm's recognition for excellence in client service and experience in the 2026 Beaton Client Choice Awards, and in previous years' ALPMA Awards and Australasian Law Awards. The firm has also again been recognised in the 2027 Best Law Firms Australia rankings for Family Law, continuing from previous years.

Managing Director Murray Thornhill said the acknowledgements reflected the firm's ongoing commitment to the core values of Excellence, Trust and Care, across all of its specialist teams.

"We are grateful and honoured to be recognised alongside many highly regarded firms and practitioners across the country," Mr Thornhill said.

"Importantly, these acknowledgements reflect the work of all of our teams. Outcomes for clients are never achieved by individuals alone. Clients enjoy access to so many talented and dedicated professionals, who pursue legal service excellence combined with genuine care for clients and colleagues."

"To receive recognition from both industry peers and clients is a reflection of the standards we strive to uphold every day and a direct result of the way the firm's values are embedded."

"At HHG, we remain focused on providing practical, commercially minded advice and supporting clients through important moments in business and life."

Best Lawyers is one of the legal profession's longest standing peer-review publications, with rankings based on confidential feedback from lawyers across Australia.
