About the LifeChanger Foundation

The LifeChanger Foundation was founded by Scott Watters and Trevor Hendy on the premise that when nurtured and supported, every person has the capability to become the best version of themselves and be the thriving, resilient person they deserve to be.

LifeChanger is a preemptive and holistic mental and physical wellbeing program for youth.

LifeChanger's mission is to empower young people by providing the resources, skills, education, and pathway they need to develop self-esteem and self-awareness, positive self-identity, and resilience.

The challenges young people face today are unprecedented and confronting. The statistics are alarming. Mental health, anxiety, bullying, obesity, self-harm, drug and alcohol abuse, addiction and youth suicide present a challenging landscape for all families.

LifeChanger's evidence-based program, expert facilitation and trained community mentors develop young people with the emotional and social skills to live thriving, resilient lives. LifeChanger workshops are pre-emptive and holistic sessions that support schools, sporting groups and communities by building thriving, resilient young people and strong mentor connections.
