Mint Payments Appoints Huy Truong as Executive Chairman, announces retirement of Bill Bartee

Sydney, Australia –March 25th 2025 – Mint Payments Limited is pleased to announce the appointment of investor and business builder Huy Truong as its new Executive Chairman. Concurrently, the company announces the retirement of Bill Bartee from the Mint Board of Directors.

Bringing extensive experience as an investor, business builder, and social entrepreneur, Huy has distinguished himself across multiple industries, including Private Equity investment, financial services, technology, and social impact ventures. His career began with Boston Consulting Group before transitioning into entrepreneurship and venture investment. Currently, he is an active investor and serves as Chair/director of several growth companies, such as Infrastructure Matters (UK), Heart Financial, and Global Relief Supplies. Huy has previously founded or led multiple companies, driving significant growth in enterprise value, including Wishlist.com.au, Jurlique (AU, UK, China, Japan, US), ALI Group, and Australia Glass Group. His investment experience includes roles at Yarra Capital Partners and CHAMP Ventures. A Harvard Business School alumnus, Huy is also deeply involved in social impact initiatives, co-founding Thrive Refugee Enterprise and chairing Save The Children's Investment Committee.

As part of his appointment, Huy participated in Mint Payments' recent capital raise in December, where he collaborated closely with the CEO on the future strategy, capital requirements and resource planning. Huy will work closely with the Mint team, leveraging his experience and insights to build on Mint's market position in travel with additional products and integration that will improve existing customer productivity and provide a platform for Mint's growth in Australia and selected international markets.

Commenting on his appointment, Huy Truong said: "I'm excited to join Mint at this pivotal time. The company has a strong foundation and significant growth potential. I look forward to working with the team to execute our strategic vision, enhance profitability, and expand internationally."

Mint Payments CEO Alex Teoh added: "We are thrilled to welcome Huy Truong as our new Executive Chairman. Huy's proven leadership, entrepreneurial and growth expertise will be invaluable in driving the company forward. At the same time, we
