Aura Private Credit Income Fund Maintains 'Very Strong' Rating from Foresight Analytics

Sydney, 27 May 2025

Aura Group is pleased to announce that Foresight Analytics has reaffirmed its 'Very Strong' rating for the Aura Private Credit Income Fund (APCIF), recognising the Fund's robust risk-adjusted performance, institutional-grade processes, and consistent income delivery through varying market cycles.

Foresight Analytics' independent assessment highlights the Fund's strengths across credit selection, portfolio construction, and risk management frameworks, positioning it favourably among its peers in the Australian private credit landscape.

"We are proud to maintain this high rating, which reflects the strength of our credit team and our focus on disciplined lending and risk transparency," said Brett Craig, Managing Director of Aura Private Credit. "At a time when investors are paying closer attention to the risks behind returns, independent validation such as this is more important than ever."

The Aura Private Credit Income Fund provides wholesale investors with exposure to a diversified portfolio of Australian business loans, underpinned by strong governance and an active risk management approach. The Fund has consistently met its target income objectives while navigating macroeconomic shifts, positioning it as an income solution for sophisticated portfolios.

This continued recognition underscores Aura's commitment to delivering risk-aware credit strategies for investors seeking income and capital stability outside of traditional fixed income.
