

Press Release 13 July 2022

Grey Goose Vodka has an Aussie Rival Conrad Distillery Vodka Wins Double Gold in their first International Spirit Competition.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The Summit, Queensland - Queensland Wine Region – July 2022 - Forget champagne... it's Martini glasses that are clinking in celebration around Conrad Distillery. Conrad Distillery was awarded the prestigious Double Gold Medal for their first Vodka scoring an impressive 96 points and claiming runners-up for Best Vodka against world-class international rivals at the 2022 Inaugural International Women's Spirits Competition.

The competition brings esteemed judging panels made up exclusively of professional women winemakers, distillers, sommeliers, retail buyers, beverage industry educators and journalists to recognize the best spirits submitted plus judge which spirit would appeal most to women buyers and consumers.

Conrad Distillery's Mistress of The Still and founder Debra Spence is thrilled and humbled to receive such prestigious awards early in the Distillery's story. It validates the team's hard work and passion for bringing this great spirit to life.

"The comments from the judges show that the prestigious Grey Goose Vodka has an Australian rival; I'm beyond excited and so proud that we have achieved our goal of producing an outstanding spirit for Australians to enjoy," said Debra.

Here's what the world's best judges had to say about Conrad Vodka

Judges Notes: clean fruity nose, milky mouthfeel, well balanced, and offers a full-bodied fullness.

Tasting Notes: Conrad Vodka is a powerful yet beautifully batched crafted modern vodka, inspired by all that is exceptionally fresh and smooth with a hint of sweetness linked to the wine from which it was sourced.

Conrad Distillery Vodka is fantastic on its own, in your favourite cocktail or mixer and will be released to the public on 30 July 2022 together with their Gin and XO Café liqueur. We hope everyone will get behind what will be a great Queensland success story.
