Aussie Frozen Fruit Wins Best Frozen Fruit Award

Aussie Frozen Fruit Mixed Berries have been announced as the winner of 'Best Frozen Fruit' in the Frozen Product category of the 2022 Healthy Food Guide Awards run by Australian Healthy Food Guide magazine.

"We are exceptionally proud of our 100% Australian grown frozen fruit range and are thrilled to be recognised at the 2022 Healthy Food Guide Awards. We remain committed to supporting our local growers and to providing healthy and true-blue products to our customers," said Aussie Frozen Fruit General Manager Phil Rybinski.

Judged by a panel of leading dietitians and nutritionists including Dr Joanna McMillan, Susie Burrell, Jaime Rose Chambers and Kathleen Alleaume, the Awards are a credible and definitive guide to the most nutritious packaged food products on Australia's supermarket shelves.

"These awards recognise brands that have worked hard to boost the nutritional content and accessibility of their products," Healthy Food Guide managing editor, Jenny de Montalk says.

"They also acknowledge products that are affordable, as well as healthy. With people feeling the pinch right now, it's good to know there are healthy options out there that don't cost the earth," Ms de Montalk says.

Phil Rybinski added: "Our Australian Frozen Mixed Berries are packed with snap frozen, perfectly ripe Aussie grown Strawberries, Blueberries, Raspberries and Blackberries and have always been a favourite with our customers,"

"Our popular range provides nutrition, quality, convenience and versatility for recipes including smoothies, desserts, breakfasts and baking; and will always contain the amazing Australian taste in every pack," Phil Rybinski said.

Available exclusively in the freezer aisle of Woolworths stores nationally, Aussie Frozen Fruit is an Australian grown, owned and packed range of frozen fruit products featuring 400g packs of Mixed Berries, Blueberries, Strawberries, Pineapple and Mangoes.
