Theatre Guild Sets Sail for its 85th Year in Adelaide

In Adelaide's thriving arts community, the University of Adelaide Theatre Guild is delighted to celebrate its 85th Anniversary. The Guild was established in 1938 and is Adelaide's second oldest amateur theatre company.

Featuring three contemporary plays, the 2023 season will kick off this week with a Shakespearean classic, all presented in the uniquely gorgeous Little Theatre.

William Shakespeare's

THE TEMPEST

Directed by Bronwyn Palmer

Opens 24 March

Tickets from <http://www.trybooking.com/CECWG>

Set on a fictional island in one of the Great Pacific Garbage patches in the Pacific Ocean, this story of shipwreck and magic is suitable for students studying English and Shakespearean Drama.

THE WONDERFUL WORLD OF DISSOCIA

Written by Anthony Neilson

Directed by Thomas Filsell

Opens 4 May

Tickets from <http://www.trybooking.com/CECWY>

Disturbing, hilarious and profoundly thought-provoking, this play features an important message to convey regarding mental health. As its playwright explained, "If you like Alice in Wonderland but there's not enough sex and violence in it, then Dissocia is the show for you."

KISSING THE WITCH

Written by Emma Donoghue

Directed by Imogen Deller-Evans

Opens 10 August

Tickets from <http://www.trybooking.com/CECXG>

Five familiar tales – Beauty and the Beast, Donkeyskin, The Goose Girl, The Little Mermaid, and an enchanting new story – are seamlessly rewoven in unexpected ways, allowing women to reclaim the stories and identities that have been used against them for centuries.

The South Australian premiere of

INK

Written by James Graham

Directed by Robert Bell

Opens 12 October

Tickets from <http://www.trybooking.com/CECXJ>

Before 'Fox News', there was 'The Sun'. In Fleet Street, London 1969, brash young Australian Rupert Murdoch and an unlikely team of underdog reporters give us a story good enough for the front page.

Theatre Guild Student Society presents 3 exciting productions:

BREAKFAST OF CHAMPIONS

A play by Robert Egan, adapted from the novel by Kurt Vonnegut Jr.

Directed by Taylor Fernandez

1984

A play by Michael Gene Sullivan, adapted from the novel by George Orwell

Directed by Oswin Kwan

UNCLE VANYA

A play by Anton Chekov, adapted by Annie Baker

Directed by Connor Duncan
