Easter Weekend 900 Hot Rods Descend on Hawkesbury Showground for the Australian Street Rod Nationals

Hawkesbury Showground @ Clarendon NSW is host to the 25th Australian Street Rod Nationals 6th to 9th April 2023.

Easter Saturday and Sunday are the Highlight days on the program. We welcome the public to join us as we celebrate the motors, music, and lifestyle of yesteryear. Sydney Swing Katz dance troupe will be showing off their supreme skill on the dancefloor, from rock and roll to rockabilly you are sure to be transported back in time with the of some of the best local rock and roll and rockabilly bands performing live. A myriad of market stalls and food trucks to appease the biggest appetite. Celebrating the lifestyle of the 50's The Australian Pin Up Pageant will be promoting confidence and self-esteem with a Pinup competition to be held on Sunday. The littlest rock and rollers have not been forgotten with awe inspiring amusement rides and show bags, and it just wouldn't be a family day out without the fairy floss and snow cones. There is something to keep the biggest to the smallest family members entertained.

The Australian Street Rod Federation (ASRF) Nationals is a bi-annual event and 2023 sees the 25th anniversary of what has become an institution to Hot Rod Owners across the country. Over 900 superb Hot Rod and Classic cars will be polished up ready for an incredible Show and Shine over the Easter Weekend. The Australian Street Rod Federation are very privileged to have You Tube content Creator Matt Murray from Iron Trap Garage, Pennsylvania USA, and renowned international car show judge Greg Stokes from GMS Hot Rods New Zealand. Matt and Greg are looking forward to joining a panel of industry experts to determine the winners of the top 25 vehicles in show.
