Wild Horse Turf Receives Prestigious Award for Best Wintergreen Couch Grass in Queensland

Glass House Mountains, Sunshine Coast - June 20, 2023 - Wild Horse Turf, a leading turf farm based in Glass House Mountains, proudly announces that it has been awarded the top honour for growing the best Wintergreen Couch turf in Queensland. The accolade was presented on June 14, 2023, as part of a highly competitive competition organised and awarded by the Queensland Turf Producers Association.

The Queensland Turf Producers Association's award is a testament to Wild Horse Turf's unwavering commitment to excellence and its consistent delivery of premium-quality turf products. Amongst the turf farms in Queensland vying for recognition, Wild Horse Turf's Wintergreen Couch grass stood out as the unrivalled choice, thanks to its exceptional appearance, durability, and root structure.

Owners Amanda and Dean Smyth, who have passionately owned and operated Wild Horse Turf since 2005, were elated to receive this prestigious accolade. Amanda Smyth expressed her gratitude, saying, "We are truly honoured to have our Wintergreen Couch recognised as the best in Queensland. This award is a testament to the hard work, dedication, and expertise of our team."

Dean Smyth added, "At Wild Horse Turf, we have always strived to provide our customers with top-notch turf products that exceed their expectations. This recognition reinforces our commitment to quality and strengthens our resolve to continue delivering outstanding turf varieties for years to come."

The Wintergreen Couch grass offered by Wild Horse Turf is renowned for its lush, vibrant green colour, exceptional resilience, and ability to withstand challenging weather conditions. This award-winning turf variety is a popular choice amongst homeowners, sports field managers, and landscape architects across Queensland.

Wild Horse Turf's success can be attributed to its meticulous attention to detail, and unwavering commitment to product quality.

With this recent recognition, Wild Horse Turf continues to solidify its position as a premier turf provider in Queensland. Whether for residential, commercial, or recreational purposes, customers can rely on Wild Horse Turf to deliver the finest Wintergreen Couch and a superior customer experience.
