Canopy SDA Celebrates Grand Opening of Albury Brolga Manor with Federal Member for Farrer, Sussan Ley, and Albury Mayor Kylie King

Albury, New South Wales - Canopy SDA is thrilled to announce the official opening of Albury Brolga Manor, the first property built to provide a home for six local Albury residents living with disabilities under the Specialist Disability Accommodation Program. The grand opening ceremony will take place on the 18th of September 2023, at 1:00 pm, at the impressive 499 Alldis Avenue, Lavington.

Federal Member for Farrer and Deputy Opposition Leader, the Honourable Sussan Ley, who has been serving as the Member for Farrer since 2001, will be a distinguished guest at this momentous occasion. Additionally, Albury Mayor Kylie King will join the celebration, highlighting the significance of this event for the local community.

Albury Brolga Manor represents a significant milestone in Canopy SDA's mission to provide exceptional living spaces for individuals with disabilities. The innovative home has been meticulously crafted to adhere to the Passivhaus design principles, prioritizing sustainability and fostering an environment where residents can live as independently as possible, opening doors to newfound possibilities.

"We are honoured to welcome Federal Member for Farrer and Deputy Opposition Leader, the Honourable Sussan Ley, along with Albury Mayor Kylie King, as distinguished guests to the grand opening of Albury Brolga Manor. Their presence underscores the collective commitment of our community and government to providing exceptional living spaces for individuals with disabilities." said Canopy SDA CEO, Adam Strong. "This milestone is a testament to the dedication and vision of our team, as well as the unwavering support of our partners at Synergis. Together, we are opening doors to newfound possibilities for those we proudly serve."
