SYDNEY: "All are welcome" is the message from Tania Soulos, founder of TWALK and organiser of the International Women's Day event "IWD G&T's", a breakfast at Moore Park golf course Friday 8th March 2024.

"We wanted to do something fun and different for IWD, and give back to charities we know have an impact on women's lives," says Tania.

"This year's theme is inclusivity. All men, women, children, babies, straight, gay, trans, any culture or ethnic background, any religion or atheists are welcome to join us for a hit and miss at golf and a cup of tea".

The IWD G&T's event will raise funds for Ovarian Cancer (OCRF: Ovarian Cancer Research Foundation), with survivor and ambassador Georgie Beck in attendance.

Barry du Bois, from the Living Room, now starring on Studio 10 will be the MC for the morning.

Attendees are also able to donate to women's charity "Dress for Success" a charity organisation who supports women returning to the workforce.
