FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

AUSTRALIA INDEPENDENT FILM FESTIVAL PRESENTS AIFF24

Australia's highly acclaimed Australia Independent Film Festival is back bigger and better this October. Located in Brisbane Australia at one of Australia's coolest venues within one of Brisbane's coolest art precincts is the internationally recognised Australia Independent Film Festival.

FIVE STARS – "Put this festival in your top 10" Jhett Tolentino, Grammy & Tony Award Winner.

Known passionately as "the filmmaker's festival," AIFF is on track to become Australia's premiere short film and screenplay festival.

"Brisbane is home to so much creative talent and we're proud to be sponsoring the Australia Independent Film Festival and SEQ Future Stars, so today's students have the opportunity to be globally renowned filmmakers tomorrow." The Right Honourable, the Lord Mayor of Brisbane, Councillor Adrian Schrinner.

Including a mixture of local, national, international and world premieres, festival attendees will enjoy a fully curated program of stela short form documentaries, animations, experimental, and drama films. There is sure to be something that pleases everyone. The festival also welcomes the return of the SEQ Future Stars, a special program and awards ceremony exclusively for high school students from South-East-Queensland.

Where: METRO ARTS - BRISBANE.

When: 25 – 27 October 2024

Ticket prices from FREE - $22.50 plus booking.

About the Australia Independent Film Festival. AIFF was founded in 2017 by award winning Brisbane filmmakers Jeremy Rigby and Richard Lawton. AIFF has grown from strength to strength and is now a prominent event on the domestic and international film festival circuit. The festival has ranked several times in the Top 100 best reviewed festivals on FilmFreeway the world's largest festival submission site.

The Australia Independent Film Festival is supported by the Queensland Government via Screen Queensland's Screen Culture Fund.
